

Description

The telephone socket outlet is intended for standard cat. 4 RJ11 type connections. For VOIP (voice of IP) telephone connections it will be necessary to use the data socket outlet (V305WT / BK) due to the category rating requirements. The housing is made from a high quality polycarbonate plastic and incorporates a pictogram on the front face to easily identify the application.